

cast." So the work goes on. Brothers McFaden and Barth went away last week to do some special work. Brother Mc. came home Saturday but Brother Barth remained out near South Bend.

GLORIOUS MEETING.

Fine congregation out and Brother Haggard led the meeting. He said, "Let us have what the Salvationists call a 'pop-corn meeting,'" and we did have. Testimonies for Christ not only strengthens the one that gives the testimony, but all they that hear. Bless God, we can be living witnesses for Jesus.

We also were pleasantly surprised when we went down to the mission to see Brother Puterbaugh standing among the boys, practicing singing. Glad to have him with us and to hear him sing and talk for the Lord and encourage the followers of the Master. Several young men were impressed and felt that they were standing in a dangerous place. The Spirit was pleading hard with them. I pray they will follow the pleadings of the Holy Spirit and not drive him away.

THE LOST CHILD.

Little Lizzie was found that night yet. After all the fright and scare she was not far away. The child had been frightened after school was out because of a wrong act of her own. She visited another school with a little girl, and her oldest brother had scared her so about a whipping when her mother came home, that she hid herself under the bed and fell asleep. The mother said at Sunday-school, "It don't make any difference, only so she is found;" and that is the way with God—only so the lost is found.

VISITORS.

Week before last our K. C. editor made us a pleasant visit. We were glad to see him, and then, too, he is always ready to sing, pray and preach. On Thursday night we turned the mission over to Brother Talley and had a splendid meeting. A few minutes after Brother T. came, who should surprise us but sister Emma Lichty and her brother-in-law from Lanark, Ill. That morning sister S. M. Lichty and son of Lincoln, Neb., on their way home from the east, stopped to spend a few hours, but their train did not leave till after 1 P. M. It was a feast for us to see and visit them all. A few days before this brother S. J. Harrison spent Saturday night with us. Glad to have him come. Brother C. Rowland spent Saturday and Sunday with us. He brought with him a large satchel that brother and sister Harrison had filled with delicious California fruit, for which we are very thankful. Brother Kessler, of Philadelphia, has secured work in the city and as often as he can he comes and gives a helping hand in the services. Glad to have him here and attend the services. We are glad to have our brothers and sisters come. You don't know how much good it does us. Come again.

Last Thursday we had the pleasure of seeing and having a short visit with Brother Bashor. He was on his way to Goshen, Ind., to labor for the Lord in revival effort. May the Lord bless every effort and give souls for their work.

GLEANINGS FROM THE WAYSIDE.

Homeward bound, and train bound as well. Only have to wait seven hours in the city of Logansport for connection. Not just the most pleasant thing in life, but we must meet with disappointments in order to remind us that there is a higher power over ruling even in the walks of life. Sunday was our regular appointment at Salem, Ind., and another busy day for pastor and people. Sunday-school as usual at 9:30, church at 10:30, baptizing at 3:30 P. M., when two young ladies were added to our number. Arm in arm they walked down in the stream as brave hand maidens of the Lord. Services at 7:30 and confirmation at 8:00. Large audience and good order prevailed. On Monday evening was our communion service, and a feast of spiritual things, the largest in the history of our pastorate of almost eight years. Quite a number of members came from Darwin, one of brother Roy Teeter's charges, and several from Flora, and a large per cent. of the home members was present. And all in all it was encouraging to all.

So the work moves on and we are bringing a few sheaves for the garner of the Lord. On the first Sunday in June we will close our pastorate with the Pleasant Hill church, Ohio, (having served them for five years) to take up the pastorate of the Mt. Vernon church, Ind., in our own county. Hope the change may be for good all the way round, and heaven's blessing rest upon all.

Yours for good,

WM. W. SUMMERS.

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

A GOOD CONFESSION.

A young man made the good confession last Friday night. Another soul started for the Kingdom. We had a splendid meeting. The Lord was with us. In every case reaction comes. After our hard work of seed sowing and reaping, there came a period of seeming stagnation but we were busy looking out for headers, turning aside the effort of slick devils, and preparing future seed sowing and reaping, and now the work moves off again, and souls are coming to Jesus, others are not far away, and I pray that when this is read they may have taken the step that will place them in the right position. Pray for us that we may have continued success.

PEOPLE WHO PASS.

Brother S. H. Bashor preached for us on Monday night. We gave him a good congregation for Monday night. Brother Bashor says we are laying a good foundation for fall work. That is true. That is just what we are trying to do. We understand the work we have in hand, and propose to do it by God's help. Sister Annie Whipkey from Carleton, Neb. spent Sunday with us and it was like old times to have her in the home, and made us have a touch of homesickness for Nebraska. Annie is a faithful worker and deserves the vacation she enjoys. Brother Horace Yoder is in the city on business and we enjoy his presence. Brother Horace is working for a paper and is doing good work. If you desire to reach Iowa thro a paper in the way of advertizing, Horace is the man to see, and if he sees you he will get your "ad."

THE AMERICAN VOLUNTEERS.

Last Monday I heard Ballington Booth and his singing troop. He made a good
